

His Excellency, Mr. Eduardo Ferreyros Küppers,
Minister for Foreign Trade

Excellency,

In connection with the Economic Partnership Agreement between Japan and Peru (JPEPA), I have the honor to confirm on behalf of the Government of Japan that the Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) rate of Japan may be applied to the good of Peru in the following cases, where the GSP rate of Japan to that good is applicable subject to laws and regulations of Japan:

- 1) The good is excluded from the Japan's commitment under the JPEPA;
- 2) The good is in the renegotiation category in the Japan's commitment under the JPEPA; or
- 3) The applicable GSP rate on that good is lower than the JPEPA rate on the same good.

Yours sincerely,

Shigeru NAKAMURA

Ambassador for International Economic Affairs
