4. In the case of a tax convention to which one or more of the Parties to the Pacific Alliance and Singapore are party, if an issue arises as to whether any inconsistency exists between this Agreement and the tax convention, the issue shall be referred to the designated authorities of the relevant Parties to the Pacific Alliance and Singapore. The designated authorities of the relevant Parties to the Pacific Alliance and Singapore shall have six months from the date of referral of the issue to make a determination as to the existence and extent of any inconsistency. If the designated authorities agree, the period may be extended up to 12 months from the date of referral of the issue. No procedures concerning the measure giving rise to the issue may be initiated under Chapter 23 (Dispute Settlement) or Article 8.20 (Submission of a Claim to Arbitration) until the expiry of the six-month period, or any other period as may have been agreed by the designated authorities. 8. Article 8.13 (Expropriation and Compensation) shall apply to taxation measures. However, no investor may invoke Article 8.13 (Expropriation and Compensation) as the basis for a claim if it has been determined pursuant to this paragraph that the measure is not an expropriation. An investor that seeks to invoke Article 8.13 (Expropriation and Compensation) with respect to a taxation measure must first refer to the designated authorities of the Party of the investor and the respondent Party, at the time that it gives its notice of intent under Article 8.20 (Submission of a Claim to Arbitration), the issue of whether that taxation measure is not an expropriation. If the designated authorities do not agree to consider the issue or, having agreed to consider it, fail to agree that the measure is not an expropriation within a period of six months of the referral, the investor may submit its claim to arbitration under Article 8.20 (Submission of a Claim to Arbitration).

9. This Agreement shall not prevent Singapore from adopting taxation measures no more trade restrictive than necessary to address Singapore's public policy objectives arising out of its specific constraints of space.

Article 24.5: Temporary Safeguard Measures

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining restrictive measures with regard to transfers or payments from the current account in the event of serious balance of payments and external financial difficulties or a threat thereof.
2. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining restrictive measures with regard to the transfers or payments related to capital movements:
 - (a) in the event of serious balance of payment and external financial difficulties or a threat thereof, or

3. Any measure that is adopted or maintained in accordance with paragraphs 1 or 2 shall:
 - (a) be applied in a non-discriminatory manner so that no Party receives a less favourable treatment than any other Party to the Pacific Alliance or non-Party;

These measures which restrict importations must be consistent with the GATT 1994 and the Understanding of the Balance of Payments Provisions of the GATT 1994.
5. With regard to trade in services, no provision in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent a Party from taking restrictive trade measures in order to safeguard its external financial position

 - (b) promptly commence consultations with the other Party to review the measures maintained or adopted by it:
